The moon peers
between tree branches,
A soft reminder
of the love, the light,
which endures
forever. And now,
My thoughts race back in time
to battles I never fought.
Memories of wounds,
which never pierced my skin,
but send shivers of pain
through my soul.
The battle rages still, and I wonder,
will my shield be strong enough,
my sword fit to wield,
will I even join the struggle?
Give me strength O' Lord.
I hear the call, the cry,
the broken words of servants
from long ago,
the call to be,
... Soldiers of the light.

It's sometimes very hard for us to understand the call to be a "Soldier of the Light". Instructions fill space on paper or echo through empty air. Yet the Father is all around. While His presence is unseen, His voice jumps out at me through the beauty of His creation. Sometimes for me to understand this calling, I must sit utterly quiet and search for truth through that which speaks no words.

Quiet, on a campus where friends are always within shouting distance, is usually a rarity, but then perhaps it's the non-stop "extra-curricular activities" which help us to appreciate those quiet times that much more.

On occasion, the world around us can become suddenly cold. It is then our chore to remain consistently warm and caring, urgent in our desire to lift the spirits of those around us. (Sometimes unseasonable dress may help to get one "in the mood.")

Perhaps we need to find a moment, an hour, or even an entire day when the books can be left behind, the questions which nag at our quest for life can be shelved, and without qualms we can lose ourselves in joyful, "fellowship" and really cut loose; act like a looney-tune.

The need for release can alone or surrounded by others. The easiest way for me to realize the life I am called to live is to achieve an understanding of practicing His presence. I must always be free to lift my voice to Him through quiet times or crazy times, to know that He is near, and to await his response.

Dedicated to

Wanda McMichael

Dedication is perhaps the one word which adequately describes Wanda McMichael's service to NNC, where her talent for detail is extremely important. To her family, she exemplifies love, kindness, and positive attitudes. To her friends, she is loyal, forthright and trustworthy. She is characterized as always displaying a cheerful and steadfast dignity.

This year will be Mrs. McMichael's 30th year of service to NNC. From 1946-1964 she served a total of 10 years in various positions at NNC, including College High teacher, Summer School teacher, and working in the Registrar's Office. In 1964 she became Associate Registrar and served in that capacity for four years before taking the head Registrar's position. She has remained in this position for the past 16 years. Words could not adequately describe all the time and effort, especially behind the scenes, she has put into helping the students of NNC; especially helping seniors to graduate!

For her many contributions to NNC, we gratefully dedicate this 68th volume of the Oasis to Mrs. Wanda McMichael.

While studying the Word of the Lord, it is easy to come in touch with what it means to be a "Soldier of the Light." Now we must ask: How is that assimilated into life here at NNC?

Since the call of Christ is an individual calling in many respects, we must each respond to this question in our own way. Yet basic aspects of our calling encompass the whole of each Christian's existence, therefore, when talking about the applicable instances of the call to be soldiers of the light, I associate the calling with nearly every aspect of our student life.

This may seem heavy, but think about it for a moment. We have the opportunity to reach out during our work time, or to lift a friend or stranger as we pass them on the sidewalk. At concerts, Rootbeer Fests, or Friday Night Live, we take time out to relax for an evening, so why not take a friend and share some of the "light" in our lives with them?

Moving In

"One man's junk is another man's treasure." Loads and loads of it, call it junk or call it treasure, be it neatly packed in suitcases and trunks, or bundled together haphazardly with bailing twine and stapled to the top of a station wagon; in the end it's all dumped in the middle of a single room usually to be shared by at least two people.

"Cramped", does not justly define the situation in a dorm room. Occasionally, "unbearable" is a more apt description. Girls finally finish putting away the clothes, and have safely tucked stuffed panda bears and poodles away in bed, while guys tend to leave the clothes on the floor (their usual meeting place anyway) and head for the park to toss frisbees between trees and gaze at girls, sure that there will be time later to finish ... moving in.

Clockwise left: Rhonda Wrinkle gets settled in . . . Parents can be a big help
Thanks Dad! . . . R.A.'s to point the way . . . Brad Noffsinger carries a heavy load
. . . One more trip . . . A moving van!

Registration

And they came from all walks of life, the freshman, the sophomore, the junior, the senior (and the fifth year senior!). Such a diverse group of people with as many different goals for their lives, all brought together at the same time for a common purpose—registration. Ah yes, registration, two days of frenzied, frantic searching; for classes, for teachers, for counselors, for credits . . . for friends.

One will see many smiles as people who left each other during the summer are once again reunited on campus. Tales of adventures during the three-month break pass back and forth between friends, and then the smiles off time fade to frowns or looks of consternation as students search for the right combination of teachers, credits and classes that will aid them in attaining those goals they have set for their lives. Mental anguish, physical fits, and weariness may characterize these first few days of returning to NNC, but the sense of relief felt when it is all over helps to stem the frustration, and besides, without the madness, it just wouldn't be . . . registration.

Below clockwise: Lines and more lines . . . Terry Christensen, Glen Spinnie, and Bill Antilla work on their schedules . . . Welcome Back! . . . So many books Phil waits in line, again . . . Dr. Fyffe gives advice on schedule planning.

Kick back, watch a few cartoons, bust down three or four frosty mugs of root beer and reacquaint yourself with all those folks missed so much during the summer break.

It's time for the first social event of the year; B.Y.O.B. (Bring Your Own Blanket).

It's the NNC Root Beer Fest and it's outside and traditionally it's cold, but the atmosphere at least is warm.

The projector reels off cartoons. Poor little Road Runner still can't shake Wile E. Coyote and Elmer Fudd tramps out after Bugs and Daffy. "I'm gonna get dat wabbit!" Meanwhile the students sat down on the grass, snuggled in their blankets, and slurped down the root beer.

Slurpin' Root

Clockwise from above: Carla Buckmaster, Beth Aebischer, Jeff Sharpton, and Karen Kusch seem to have frozen on this cold night while conversing over root beer. Maaiké Thompson tries a balancing act. Connie Collinge and Susie Smith are friends forever. Lee Taylor chugs down the root beer. Eric Kellerer begins the hilarious entertainment with cartoon friends. Jeff Melberg is caught in the act while Christie and Rod play innocent. Shelly McLean pours many root beer mugs still keeping her cool. Bruce Lee enjoys that "Frosty Mug Taste."

Beer Fest Time

Freshmen Initiation 1983

Clad in hospital gowns and robes, they walked the hallways and sidewalks of the NNC campus, always under the constant scrutiny of those would-be Psychiatric Medical Doctors who watched for any semblance of disobedience to the rules of the ward. Who were these people? Escapees from a state institution? Auditioners for "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest II?"

No, of course not. They're just typically atypical freshmen who, for one week anyway, were supposed to play the part of patients in a psycho ward as part of the initiation procedures at this fine institution of higher learning.

And who were those would-be doctors who expressed such an interest in the welfare of the obviously hurting patients? Why they are the sophomores naturally; a full year removed from the naivety of their freshman year ... a frontal labotomy anyone?

Clockwise from above: Loni and John carry their trays to the dishwasher ... Brian gets attention ... Dave cuddles with babydoll as Steve watches ... Merilee balances her tray Wayne Millar defies the tobacco school code when harassing the freshman ... Kurt, Jim, Dan, Gene, and Kari show off their legs.

Fresheree 1983

Okay freshmen, perhaps you seem to be neglected — you feel abused. It's hard being away from home, and it seems like the upper-classmen don't like you very much. Well, that all may be true, to a degree, even so you can count on the sophomores to be sympathetic. "Fresheree" is a show just for you, so quit your whining and pay attention!

Fall Revival

His index finger pointed out across the listeners, some of whom slumped lower into their pews to escape his gaze. Others, ears perked, leaned forward, gleening wisdom from those same words.

Stephen Manley's preaching touched hearts. His dramatizations of the stories of scripture conjured visions in the mind's eye, and surrounding it all, binding the actions and words, was the inescapable challenge of the truth presented through the gospel of Christ.

For many, a time of answering questions. For others, a time of raising them. Gathering at the altar brought tears of joy to lives reborn. The Fall Revival with Stephen Manley was a revival in the truest sense of the word.

Our Town

Far away from the glitter of New York, ages removed from the fast paced lifestyle of Los Angeles, there is a place one can go where everyone in the city knows each other; a place where the story of two young people growing up and getting married could be the talk of the town. This is the story. Welcome to, "Our Town."

Thornton Wilder calls all of us, through thoughts and words of his characters who grow to maturity and even speak to us after their death to not take lightly the time which we spend in this world.

It is the tearful Emily Webb, who sums up Wilder's point as she watches her loved ones from the grave, "Do any human beings ever realize life while they live it — every minute?"

Homecoming: Singtime In The Rockies

Clockwise: Jennifer Bentley and Jim Rotter promote Homecoming '83 ... Jerome Clayton lays one up for two ... NNC students gather around bonfire ... Cheerleaders show their spirit during the Parade ... Colorado float ... Susie Smith and Rayburn Mitchell serenade Homecoming Court ... Homecoming Court enjoys the game ... Crusader fans.

Homecoming Highlights

The highlight of the year for the student body without doubt has got to be homecoming. It's not just the crowning of the queen, or the big basketball game, (which NNC won by the way), but it's everything combined and more. It's the coronation, the game, the parade, the special sports events, the music, the spirit . . . it's all this in one word — tradition.

Some things never change. The queen will always cry, the princesses will cheer for the queen, the escorts will look striking and the fans will go nuts at the game. But that's what makes homecoming so special. It's traditionally the most remembered time of the year. It's something one experiences not just by sight, but with all five senses.

One can almost taste and smell the excitement of homecoming, lastly it's a time that touches the heart, from the first tear that falls from the cheek of the newly crowned queen to the leap of joy as the Crusaders drive to the basket for a dunk. It's the heart that truly feels it all.

Below Clockwise: Cliff Taylor, Jeff Whitney, and Mark Pounds display their talent ... "One more lap" ... Homecoming concert ... Spirit Bonfire ... Rob Warwick and the Crusaders fire up ... Our homecoming princesses ... Dedicated fans ... Master of ceremonies, Scott Miller.

Homecoming Court 1983

Winterfest

Clockwise from top: Rhonda and David have fun while skating . . . Allison and Kathy chat while watching the volleyball game . . . Becky tries out her new skates . . . David and Thomas enjoy their dinner — chopsticks are fun! . . . Brian, why are you making a sour face? . . . "They expect me to eat this?!". says Ron.

Yes, there was snow on the ground and no, those young men clad in bermuda shorts and sunglasses are not Hawaiian immigrants. They are participating in Winterfest. Winterfest is when students choose to ignore the seasonal elements of winter and dress like it is summer.

Awards were presented for best dressed and best tan. SAGA provided a special dinner and there were plenty of special activities, including movies and sports inside the gym. If nothing else, Winterfest provided a breath of fresh air, mentally anyway, amidst the blahs of a cold, blue winter.

It may only be a different frame of mind, because after all, outside the snow still lingers. Yet sometimes, that can be enough, for inner warmth and joy is just that — a frame of mind. The activities of Winterfest helped to thaw many frigid frowns and replace them with smiles.

Edith and Todd

Rosanna and Ron

The Sweethearts who were chosen by the Senior Class were Edith Benjamin and Todd Pittman. The Junior Class chose Rosanna Schaad and Ron Richards.

The Sophomore Class chose Cherri Choate and John Springsteel to represent them as their sweethearts.
Heidi Hagood and Chad Christensen were the freshman Valentine Sweethearts.

Senior Slick

"Put on your best dress baby.
We're steppin' out tonight."

Senior Slick is here and the time is right for slicking back the hair, donning the appropriate duds and flashing a set of shades.

If language sounds foreign, that's only because it is. Senior Slick is like a blast from the past; a stroll down memory lane with Pete "Wolfman" Young who emceed the program. It's a one night affair when students step back in time to the '50's when there were "nerds", "ducktail" hairdos, "Johnny B. Goode" and "Suzy Q" song titles, and people hung around at a place called the "malt shop."

Friday Night Live

Lights! Camera! Action! . . . Scanning the globe to bring you a constant variety of talent, it's those crazy people from the "Friday Night Live" team. Of course many (perhaps most) of the "acts" may stretch the word talent to the limit, still where else can one go in Nampa and be entertained for a better than two hours and not have it cost an arm or a leg?

Friday Night Live, as always, provided many laughs, a few boos, but mostly it was a chance for all the closet-hams in school to get some time to strut their stuff in front of the student body. Music, comedy, drama; it will be some time before people forget the Tad Newberry production of "Thriller", which starred Rob Richardson (a.k.a. Michael Jackson). And who could forget the fine rendition of that Eagles' classic, "Bulgin' Thighs" performed by Kim Wannamaker, Derek Bauder and Lee Taylor.

No, these memories will most likely never fade, at least they'll remain 'til next year when the emcee says, "Live, from Nampa, Idaho, it's Friday Night!"

Clockwise from above: Grantley Martelly brings Christmas to the Autumn ... Jeff Owens asks Juliene Hunter, "What's yer name lil' girl?" ... Kim Wannamaker, Derek Bauder, and Lee Taylor, "Swingin'" Laurie Jones, Lori Weber, Sally Weber, Gail Needham, and Shelly McLean think they are "turning Nazarene" Great music between acts with CCQ ... Special Concerts In 1984

Left: Leon Patillo asks the audience to join in with a little hand action . . . directly below: Kathy Troccoli ministers with her lovely talent . . . below left: Leon Patillo sings with his heart.

There are some who maintain that only church hymns can be used as the mode for lifting praises to the Lord in the form of singing. Most of those people probably stayed at home when Andrus Blackwood, Kathy Troccoli, Leon Patillo and the rest of those who performed in special concerts lifted their praises and students spirits at NNC. For those who did attend, their discovery was that indeed, praise inhabits the person doing the praising and truly the Lord finds joy in hearing praise from the contemporary Christian musician.

Nampa Concert Series

Nampa, Idaho, a virtual hotbed for the arts, continually cries out for more. The NNC student body's thirst for culture is no less ravaging. In response to this plea, the Music department yearly sponsors the Nampa Concert Series, providing us with the best of contemporary and classical musical artists to sooth our ears.

Chapel Highlights

Several special speakers and presentations highlighted this year's chapel services, including mimists, singers, and actors. Each, in their own way, according to their gifts, divinely given, shared the gospel with the NNC student body.

Top and bottom: The Lamb's Club from New York shares their dramatic as well as musical talent with the student body.

Tom Wilmoth keeps the crowd's undivided attention with his exhibition of mime. Micheal Christian-son from the Golden Gate Community Outreach Mission in San Francisco. Jerry Appleby explains the unique style of evangelism he uses to reach the forgotten peoples of the inner city.

Blood Drive

Sponsored by the Associated Women Students, (AWS) the blood drive always is supported well by the NNC students. First term, 116 pints of blood were collected and sent on to the Nampa sect of the Red Cross. The AWS also sponsored another drive second term.

Community Awareness Week

Community Awareness is a term which should be self explanatory. However, sometimes we still remain apathetic to the needs of our immediate community. To help the student body to become more aware of these needs, ASNNC sponsored a special week of forums and activities for the students to participate in.

Junior Class Play

"You can't take it with you"
by Koffman and Hart

A comical play with a great message concerning different classes (and types!) of people. Alice falls in love with the Vice President of the Corporation she works for and comes across the complications of wanting to marry someone who doesn't understand her family.

Clockwise from left: Grandpa, the wise one of the bunch. (Kreg Owens) refuses to pay taxes to Government. Essie (Jolene McKenzie) practices ballet while Penny (Letha Goecks) works on her beloved "Manuscript". Ed (Glenn Ness) accompanies his wife, while she practices ballet. Alice (Lynnelle Aarhus) loves her strange family, rockets and manuscripts included. Paul (Kurt Proctor) and Mr. DeFinnie (Brian Dean) discusses rockets with balloons. Granpa talking as usual. Penny (Letha Goecks) awaits the perfect word to come to her for her manuscript.

Junior/Senior Retreat

For the Juniors it's a chance to get away from school studies and relax. For the Seniors it's the same idea only, many of these people they are relaxing with, they will soon be separated from for who knows how long after graduation. Many they may never see again before the end of this age.

Slow down, refocus spiritually. Sit down and talk with that guy or girl that's been on your mind for quite awhile but you just haven't had the time until now. Old friends get closer and new friends are made. Good food good times; great memories at Junior-Senior Retreat.

Above and clockwise: One of the many diverse competitors at Malibu . . . Paul Christensen in motion . . . Ron Ruman clumsy shaver . . . Noel Sullivan and Brent Mowry sing the blues.

It's not the Florida coast, or the California coast, in fact Nampa is nowhere near a coastline unless you count Lake Lowell. Still, each year as spring fever invades NNC tapping many students with the disease, it's time to break out the skim boards, suntan oil, and shades. Turp up the Beach Boys' music, dig out your best Don Ho shirts, and find some friends; it's time for

— "Malibu Fest."

Graduation 1984

A day anticipated, a goal reached, a dream fulfilled. To continue to dream, to fear the unknown, to hope for the future. A sense of foreboding and yet the pride of past accomplishment giving way to an undaunted zeal and confidence for the future. "I can handle anything!" Can I, really? I worked hard, struggled, floated, and many times let down, but I made it. Four years and I have succeeded in accomplishing that which I set out to do. No longer the security of college — what now? Loneliness, let down and tearful good-byes to those I love so much. Yet, we share in the future, influenced by NNC, strengthened by God and relationships, destined to be an instrument of the Creator. Graduation.

Goodbye . . .

Freshmen spend a lot of time asking questions in their lives like: "Why do we have to do that?" or "Why can't we do this?" They struggle, perhaps for the first time, to find what it is which they truly believe in, or perhaps whether or not they really believe at all.

The sophomore year is separated into two distinct halves. At first they think that finally they have come to grips with the world, then in the second half they are sure that they are hopelessly lost in this vast mass of humanity called earth.

The junior years flows the most smoothly. I remember letting go of many emotional ties to ideas which I had held on to stubbornly, as I allowed the hand of the master to subtly take the helm.

Senior watch with a tiny bit of envy as the freshmen struggle through their questions, but have now set their chins firmly toward the future. The light of soldiership has begun to flare with more brilliance.

Who's Who Among American Universities And Colleges

Lori Ballard:

"For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and in spiritual understanding, that you may have a walk worthy of the Lord; fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthend with all might according to His glorious power where all patience and long suffering with joy, given thanks to the father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light."

—Colossians 1:9-12

Carla Buckmaster:

"Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But for one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."

—Philippians 3:13-14

"What our minds can conceive, we can believe and will achieve!"

Karen Gerdes:

"Climb high, climb far. Your goal the sky, your aim the star."
"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving."

—Colossians 3:23-24

Robin Johnson:

"Without risk there is no faith. Faith is precisely the contradiction between the infinite passion of the individual's inwardness and the objective uncertainty."

—Soren Kierkegaard

Revised: Faith without risk is no faith at all. I believe life itself requires faith.

Shelly McLean:

"... A balanced woman of God sees scripture as God's vital and relevant Word, worth her attention, devotion, and application ... She sees herself as valuable, gifted, and responsible for her own growth and maturity ... not overly dependent on anyone to get her through life, or to make her secure ... She sees the Lord as her strength, her refuge, and her shield when things refuse to be resolved."

—Charles Swindoll

Brent Michelson:

"For I am convinced that Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

—Romans 8:38-39

"Wisdom is supreme; therefore, get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding."

—Proverbs 4:7

Doug Mowry:

"Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love each other, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us."

—1 John 4:11-12

"Life is the art of drawing sufficient conclusions from insufficient premises."

—Samuel Butler

Bob Sherwood:

"I urge you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect."

—Romans 12:1-2

Rich Shrader:

"We are to go as the went, to penetrate human society, to mix with unbelievers and fraternize with sinners. Does not one of the church's greatest failures live here? We have disengaged too much. We have become aloof instead of alongside."

—Joseph C. Aldrich

Duane Slemmer:

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you," declares the Lord."

—Jeremiah 29:11-14

Dave Slonaker:

"I'll sure miss good ol' NNC; for we've had a great time here, you see. From these familiar surrounds we'll be gone; for now it is time to move on. Just letters from Myron we'll see; asking for our hard-earned money. Let's not forget to share of our Lord; to take stands for Him and grow in His Word. We may not know what our futures will be yet, there's One there to help, for you and for myself."

—David Slonaker

Sallie Weber:

"Be merciful to me, O God, for men hotly pursue me: all day long they press their attack."

—Psalm 56:1

But seriously folks . . .

"So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. But the pot he was shaping was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as it seemed best to him. Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand . . ."

—Jeremiah 18:3-4, 6.

Jeff Whitney:

"People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care."

—Janine Tartalia

"My heart says of you, 'Seek His Face!' Your face, Lord, I will seek. Teach me your way, O lord; lead me in a straight path . . ."

—Psalm 27:8, 11

Greg Woodroof:

"It is great to get near graduation and realize that another major goal I have strived for in my life is almost completed. Many times I was concerned about what God wanted to with my life, and He is showing me through day to day activities. As it says in Philippians, 'I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus' 3:14. This is my final goal!"

Through four years of school, there are many ways that learning takes place. Of course we read the textbooks, (or skim them anyway), and listen to lectures, but chances are that the learning experiences that we remember the most will be the ones we had while we watched our mentors, the faculty. Their words mean nothing if they do not show us what they believe. If the light does not shine in their eyes, chances are that it will not be transferred to our own.

Many of us have been lucky enough to have one of these men or women as a personal friend. The aid of a wise friend whom we esteem as a model for our own lives is an immeasurable help as we form the foundation of our future soldiership. Thank you to those of you who were more than teachers in our lives, but were friends and examples as well.

L.P.

President

The mission of Northwest Nazarene College is the development of Christian character within the philosophy and framework of genuine scholarship. You, the Class of 1984, are the living proof as to how well the NNC community has functioned.

It has been our privilege to come to know some of you personally and to sense your commitment to life and to the Christian task in the world. It is my hope that your depth of commitment will grow and direct you as you move into a profession or on to graduate school. Our world can become a better place because of who He is and who you are.

May you continue to know God's richest blessings in your lives.

Faithfully yours,

Gordon Wetmore

"Where two or three are gathered, there I will be also."

There is strength in numbers. As I have slowly matured (it seems to take forever!), and have begun to understand the patience and faith it takes to walk the path of a soldier, one of the most important concepts I have learned is that of discipleship, or support groups.

With heads bowed together and minds focused in unison upon the journey that we must individually travel, we can affirm each other of our gifts and talents, and support each other through the trials that may arise in our journey.

Sometimes we need to have affirmation in order to continue; sometimes we need that same friend to confront us to make a change.

Whatever the need, like-minded people who are committed to one another can lighten each other's loads.

"Dare To Be Different"

As Elijah (I Kings) stood up for God in a world who's attention was on other gods, and a world where the people who did believe in God were hiding in caves, so we should be the ones who dare to do more than simply believe. But to "step out of the caves" to be different to make a difference, we need to relate God and Jesus Christ in a realistic way to individuals around us. Student Government took on this theme and challenge to promote attitudes and actions in fellow students by our attitudes and actions. We tried to show that God is more than a religious ritual: He is the most powerful and loving being — the most intimate relationship to be had.

Other than feeling a positive spirit on campus, we cannot measure the good done by promoting this theme. Therefore, our prayer is that we students have created in each other the desire to live a lifestyle of evangelizing our world to the reality of God (not only "relation") in lives.

The Senate, being the legislative body of student government, actively legislated to their little hearts content. The body was made up of newcomers this year with only one returning senator. This combination set the stage for some highly "interesting" meetings. It was a mediator's challenge.

Examples of this year's bills and resolution include regulation of the taxi service, collection of election fines, guidelines (or regulations) for the budget process and loan procedures, constitutional amendments, and compiling all existing bills onto an ASNNC Code.

Above: Rochelle Hoyle has a unique way of delivering-thus, fulfilling her duties of page. Below: Lori Hawks has an eye for food. "I wonder what Chad is eating?" Bottom: Carla Buckmaster and Lori Ballard have fun doing work?

Judicial Board

"We heard several cases this year, however many students are still unaware of their freedom to use the judicial board as a service to them," noted Chief Justice Bob Sherwood.

The Judicial board is the student branch of school legislation, and is available to students who wish to appeal fines and also is the final approving body for club constitutions.

Publications Board

Elected by the student body and headed by ASNNC President, Rich Schrader, the Publications Board serves the student body by overseeing the work and production of the Crusader Newspaper and Oasis Yearbook. They make sure these publications report on functions in a manner which is in agreement with guidelines set by the Church of the Nazarene and NNC.

Pub Board members are: Brian Potter, DaNita Schreiner, Kelly Cobb, Darin Anderson, Advisor Kevin Dennis, Advisor Jerry Hull, Rich Hume, Lori Ballard, Patti Phillips, Rich Schrader, and Kathy Guffy.

In September, before the student's flocked to NNC, the student leaders met for a weekend retreat. It was a time to make new friends and share the summer's experiences with old friends; a chance for the campus leaders to get to know each other better, and plan the upcoming year's goals and activities for the rest of the students. It was purely an organizational and official business gathering . . . that happened to take place at Bogus Basin. . . . Pub Board: Kathy Guffey learns . . . Sallie Weber receives Rich Schraders spike with grace . . . attentive listeners at Student Leaders Retreat.

“Soldiers Of The Night”

Long hours, little pay, lots of anxiety. In one sentence this describes the typical stint for one on the Oasis staff. Deadline time jumps up at you like a cobra at about the same time term papers are due, or when one is preparing for mid-term tests, or worse yet, during finals. Professors always tell you how important it is for you to find the balance between studies and extra-curricular activities, seemingly oblivious to the fact you were up until 3 a.m. the night before which made it impossible to prepare for the test the next day. Still somehow you get through the test with a passing grade, and even more miraculous, what was once only a tablet of blank pages turns into a college annual at the year's end.

Staff: Duane Slemmer - Editor; Cara Helt - Associate Editor; Lloyd Harris - Advertising Manager; Dave Slonaker - Business Manager; Jenae Arneson - Secretary; Ev Tustin - Copy Editor; Kyle Besaw and Kevin Dunton - Photographers; Erin Handley, Rosemarie Castrejon, Karen Hull, and Juliene Hunter - Layout Production.

Above: Staff members Dave Slonaker, Jenae Arneson, Lloyd Harris, Kyle Besaw, Duane Slemmer, Juliene Hunter, and Cara Helt all seem to be simultaneously busy. Surprise! Northwesterners

Perhaps the most widely recognized of all of NNC's vocal groups is the Northwesterners. Under the direction of Dr. D.E. Hill, the group performed concerts in the Nampa Community and for student body functions. They also performed Gilbert and Sullivan's musical, H.M.S. Pinafore. During the summer of '84, they traveled to New Zealand to share the gospel in song.

Clockwise left: Kim, Rayburn, Robyn, Susie, and Scott sing "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" ... 1983-84 Northwesterners, left to right, kneeling: Travis Lewis, Todd Bledsoe; sitting: Nancy Donnelly, Jennifer Bentley, Susie Smith, Kim Louthen, Robyn Wendling; back row: Dr. Hill, Lynn Cowley, Clint Hahn, Scott Miller, Marilyn Laeger, Bryan Smith, Bridget Besaw, Todd Ferring, Rayburn Mitchell, Mary Beth Sherwood, and Brent Clapp the girls make their appearance on the H.M.S. Crusader Choir

Homecoming '83-'84 marked the first "Crusader Choir" Homecoming. Members from as far back as when the choir was first conceived attended a special ceremony honoring them and their original director of the group: Doris Gale Delong.

This year's Crusader Choir directed by Marvin Bloomquist sang at several churches throughout the Bosie Valley and traveled in a spring tour to churches in Oregon, and Washington as well as Idaho.

During the summer the group t traveled with the Hallelujah Brass ensemble for a three week tour of the British Isles, singing before several Nazarene churches plus a special appearance at the Britol Cathedral.

College Choir

Director Marvin Stallcop once again brought the group of over a hundred voices together to form the largest vocal group at NNC, the College Choir. Mainly composed of freshmen, the group is open to all who wish to sing and throughout the year perform at various churches in the Treasure Valley area as well as college chapel services.

The big event of the year for college choir however, as always, is the dramatic and spiritually uplifting performance of Handel's Messiah at Nampa College Church of the Nazarene, which this year featured special alumni and student soloists.

Concert Band

All student musicians interested in playing in band are welcomed to join the NNC concert band. Michael Bankston is the director of the school's largest instrumental ensemble.

Concert band provides concert to schools throughout Nampa's educational zone, performing 10 times this past school year. The band also played before the NNC student body second term and performed the "PoPs" concert third term.

Saxophone Ensemble

The Saxophone Ensemble is a musical group still in its growing stage. Directed by Michael Bankston, the group was born only four years ago. Usually ranging between 6-8 members the musicians travelled into Oregon, Washington, Utah and Idaho performing before school assemblies (along with choral groups), as well as churches and the NNC student body.

Women's Choir

Woman's Choir is a singing group at NNC open to all female students interested. The group ranged between 7 and 15 members this year and they performed under the direction of Marvin Stallcop at different churches around the Nampa Boise area as well as in chapel and on Campus before the NNC student body.

Bell Choir

Directed by George Turner, the Bell Choir performed a wide repertoire of contemporary as well as classical pieces before local groups and churches, culminating their efforts in a one hour concert May 24 in the Science Lecture Hall.

parts of Idaho during Spring term, June, July, and August. Left to right: Pam Davis, Mark
Edgbert, Tim Hubbard, Julie Zellmer, Sonny
Manning, and Juliane Hunter.

Globe Player's

Second term the Globe Players, a repertory drama group performed mainly religious drama before local churches. Third term however, the group traveled into the Portland-Vancouver area performing various Shakespearean works at several dinner theatres.

The class receives one credit in English and is organized under the direction of Dr. Earl Owens who hopes in the future to work the Globe players into some summer traveling tours.

Reader's Theatre

Reader's Theatre was divided into two very different activities this year. During the fall season under the direction of Darlene Kieth the group presented the Lewis Carroll classic, "Alice in Wonderland" to the NNC Student Body. Then during third term Darryl Wenner directed the group made up of all new members, in presenting, "The Adventures of Winne the Pooh" to various grade-schools in the Nampa Community.

Puppeteers

Unwed Mothers' Home Missionaries

Compelled Outreach and Evangelism is a group organized to give students a desire to serve in the ministry in a non-church type setting. For example, CORE offered its members five specific areas to work: Rest Home Ministry, Planation Attention Home (for Juviniles), New Life Puppeteers, Boise Rescue Mission, and the Unwed Mothers' Home. All NCC Students can participate in CORE, and through the group's efforts this year, many people were led to Jesus Christ.

CIM

Crusaders in Mission is a group which focuses on service to the kingdom through a physical as well as spiritual level. CIM this year travelled to Topeka, Kansas during Christmas break to help in building a church from what once was a school building.

Circle K

Sponsored by the Nampa Kiwanis Club, is their NNC affiliate, Circle K. Circle K is a service organization much like the Kiwanis, providing campus services, such as ushering at concerts, special chapels, and also help in community projects in Nampa, while themselves, sponsoring the annual talent show, of sorts, "Kicker Night."

Members are: First row — Darrell Walters, T.J. Miller, Rich Frampton, Mark Williams, Allen Crews. Second row — Gary Miller, Jerry Jaquess, Karen Gerdes, and Carla Buckmaster.

Biology Club

Biology Club was first organized third term of the 83-84 year, so they had little time to meet as a group. Still, there are many plans for next year's club. Organized to help pull the majors of the biology department to a closer unity, they look forward to special speakers who will come, going on research field trips (one of which they were able to squeak in this year) with other natural science clubs, and hope to continually aid the underclassmen through their four years at NNC in the biology department.

I've been an athlete all of my life. Athletes never forget what it is like to feel "the thrill of victory." However, I must admit to having dealt with the agony of defeat more often.

In reflection of those times when the score has indicated that I was on the losing side, I wonder, is there a way to find a sense of victory to hang on to instead of feeling defeated? As we continue to consider life from a more metaphysical perspective, my answer is "Yes!"

I believe that we can model a winning example in whatever we do, no matter what the final score of a contest indicates.

The Son of Man cried out in pain as he neared the end of his battle, but he held true to his initial intent. We also can set our sights past the pain or desire to quit when the world tells us we have lost. We will win in the end if we have given what we have, and then given it all to him, and finished the fight.

The Spirit Team

Sure the basketball team is in itself very exciting to watch and N.N.C. fans have lots of school spirit in and of themselves, but face it, without the cheerleaders the game just would not be the same. In a blowout game they generate more interest than the players, more than even, Lee Taylor.

The Volleyball Season

Forget the team record which was dismal with four wins and thirty-three losses. "I feel good because there was a lot of improvement," said head volleyball coach Mona Lewis.

Coach Lewis in her first year as NNC volleyball mentor pointed out several positive points in what on the record, would have been a disappointing season.

Lewis, who played on the collegiate level for Pepperdine University noted, "I hope to instill the committedness in players that I saw at the NCAA level. This year we went through some rough times. It was a real building time for them and me. I'm excited about next year. We were coming on strong at the end of the season."

Soccer 1983-84

While they had a successful season, percentage-wise it was the worst win/loss record ever for an NNC team, which shows the high caliber of soccer teams the Crusaders have had in the past. The final record stood at 8-4-2.

Individually, sophomore Jeff Schatz claimed national spotlight ranking 5th in the NAIA for a per-game scoring average of 1.5. He also set school records for goals in a season — 20; shots on goal — 57; and tied the record for goals in a single game — 4.

Horwood has high hopes for the next season, as only four Crusaders will be lost to graduation: Jeff Hanway, Ray Cotner, Kim Lima (all starters in the past four years) and Brent Michelson, who Horwood pointed out, "may be the toughest player to replace of the four since he filled in for us in so many positions throughout his career. He is like a utility man in baseball — playing whenever and wherever we needed him most."

They were coached by Dr. Art Horwood and assisted by Vern Riehle.

Women's Basketball

"For as young as our team was, I feel it was a very good season," said Martha Hopkins, NNC's Women's Basketball coach.

After losing 6 of their first 7 road games, the Crusaders came back to win 8 of their last 10 and drew the number two seeded team in the district (Western Oregon) for their opening round playoff game. The NNC women were narrowly defeated and Western Oregon went on to finish 2nd in the District to the University of Portland squad which captured second place in the nation amongst NAIA schools. (The Crusaders will host the University of Portland team February 8 next year).

Individuals paved the way to a strong team effort; Brenda Labrum received the Salisbury award as well as MVP and was selected as a conference all-star; Maaike Thompson received the team inspirational award; Candy Wilson was voted team captain and selected as an academic All-American; Jennifer Freeman was voted to the NAIA all-star team as well as the conference all-star team and Holly Bortz was named as the team's most improved player.

Men's Basketball

NNC's Men's basketball team scratched out a very respectable 15-14 record during the '83-'84 season nearly qualifying for the playoffs in what most people would have said from the outset could only be a "rebuilding year."

The Crusaders finished a perfect 10-0 at home knocking off the powerful cross-town rivals and district champions, College of Idaho, along the way.

"I am very happy with the progress we made this year," noted head coach Gary Matlock.

Only two players will be lost to graduation from next year's squad. Rob Richardson, (A first-team All-District selection) and Jeff Smith (A second-team All-District selection) are those two players which will be graduating.

"They both did a great job for us. I was pleased with their performances this year," said Matlock.

Tony Stone, a returning player was also a second-team. All-District performer, and will quarterback the '84-'85 Crusaders to what looks to be a very promising season.

"If we play to our abilities next season, we should have a very successful year," said Matlock.

Wrestling

"We were coming on strong at the end of the season," said wrestling coach Darryl Wenner.

Indeed. "coming on strong" would be the best way to describe the end of NNC's wrestling season. Although the final record was 2-6; those 2 victories came in their two final matches of the season.

The Crusaders placed 6th in the District Tournament, with Senior Scott Gregory capturing 3rd and qualifying for the National Tournament in Oklahoma.

Ken Lewis placed 4th in the district meet, losing twice to the eventual national champion.

Wenner, in his first year as NNC wrestling coach had praise for the athletes. "They were a fun-loving team, but quite serious about what was best for the team; there was always good comradery."

Wenner also had great expectations for upcoming '84-'85 season," We should be improved in overall strength, and there are several good prospects here in the valley which may attend NNC."

In what was the highest winning percentage for the team in several years, the mens tennis team won 11 of their 19 matches, dropping only eight matches, six of which were against NCAA schools. Every member of the squad which includes, Mike Caven, Dennis Tilzey, Gary Sackett, Rob Warwick, Greg Belzer, Steve Caven, Craig Mostul and Rob Cook will return next year with the exception of Sackett.

"Most valuable" players on the team were Mike Caven and Rob Warwick while Sackett was voted "Most improved" and received the Paul Swalm tennis award.

Coming off of a season in which the Crusaders finished only percentage points out of the play-offs, much was expected from this year's squad.

Key injuries to the pitching staff, which was very young to begin with, dashed many of those hopes for a competitive record and the squad finished a season mark below the .500 level.

As a team however, the Crusaders sparkled at the plate, rapping out a .313 team average. Leading the club in that area were Kevin Englehardt and Tim Miller who battled .370+. Seniors Dave Malpass, Ron Hezeltine, and Widd Medford also hit at or above the .300 level, as did freshman Chad Christensen who after taking over at third base midway through the season improved steadily at the bat to finish well above the .350 mark and added two home runs including a grand slam.

Miller, Englehardt, Hezeltine, and Medford were named to All-Conference spots while pitcher Todd Croy, who compiled a 4-4 season mark received honorable mention.

Annually the N.N.C. women's track team produces a very competitive group of runners. In the last few years, relay teams have especially sparkled.

Antonette Blythe, Julie Price, Shana Galloway and Robin Johnson passed the baton between them all the way to All-district as well as All-conference team in distance running.

Galloway was voted the "most valuable" team member; Johnson "inspirational"; Bebe Day team captain, and Jana Zellmer "most improved". For the fourth straight year Blythe received the L.E.S. track award.

The men's track team may not have exactly set the sports world on its ear this year, but head coach Paul Taylor has much to look forward to next year.

There will be no men graduating from this year's squad. Every man is a returnee including the team captain, Ron Richards and Mark Unicum who finished third nationally in the NaIA Indoor Nationals this year.

Unicum was voted "most valuable" by his team members and also received the Wesley Young track award. Hank Wyborne was voted "most improved" and John Oord "inspirational".

Golf Team

The Men's Golf Team finished third place in the district tournament, perhaps not as highly as head coach Art Horwood expected from the group, but nevertheless a very respectable finish. Phil Semenchuck and Greg Tapley, four-year lettermen were the team leaders, while Jeff Graham was voted "most improved." The season was highlighted by a second place finish for Semenchuck in the Ore-Ida tournament, and a fifth place finish for Graham at the Whitman Invitational.

In the men's regular season play, the Athenian intramural football team led with five winning games and no losses. Congratulations ATH for a perfect season record! Other season records were: SLA 4-1; OLY 3-2; LSP 2-3; ADP 1-4; and trailing the list was SPA 0-5. The super bowl tournament featured ADP as the Cinderella team, led by the flailing Mark Pounds.

The women's powderpuff action starred MP's with five wins, followed by BB with three wins and team #4 with one win. The championship game score was MP's 6 - BB's 2.

It may not be the Superbowl or the NBA championship, but it's still football or basketball, and the competition appears just as intense.

Intramurals is serious business, for the most part. The money isn't the same as what the pros get, and the fame will not be as great, but don't tell the players! For them it's more than killing time on week-ends. It's competition and determination to give it their all.

Intramural Basketball

Cat-like quickness, a silky-smooth shooting touch and resilient defense are the words which characterize those determined gym-rat hoopsters who play the rough and rugged game of intramural basketball here at NNC. The elbows fly and so do the bodies. Mostly the expression "no blood, no foul" is the rule but they keep coming back, they keep scraping and for what? If your team is lucky extremely lucky (perhaps a bit talented) they may finish in the top two and qualify for the championship finale prior to a home-varsity basketball game, and the winners, well to the winners go the spoils, the society, intramural basketball champions will take away a t-shirt.

Clockwise to the right: Tracy Martin prepares for a Home Run . . . Mike Oniel Makes a successful catch . . . Rosanne Schaad throws an underhand pitch . . . Brian Millar blows the ball away . . . Everyone watches while Jim smashes the ball . . . Kim aims steadfastly.

Forget who Mr. October is, bag the world series and get down to some serious softball, intramurally speaking.

Students grumble and gripe their way through second term but when the sun comes out, third term the snow has melted away and the grass turns from brown to green. Soon one will see a sportsman emerge from the gym with balls, bats and gloves in hand and the softball season begins.

Maybe not the best example of our national past time, perhaps the athletes are not quite "poetry in motion" but for them the spirit of competition is to be found no greater high than the softball diamonds of Kurtz park and NNC.

Antonette Blythe Awarded The Hopkins- Humphrey Award

Because of her skill, ability, leadership, sportsmanship, and scholarship, Antonette Blythe was awarded the Hopkins Humphrey Award. Antonette contributed the most to the women's sports program over her four years of intercollegiate competition. Antonette also received the L.E.S. track award for the fourth straight year. Also, this year in track and field, she received All-District and All-Conference—1st team.

Now we must ask ourselves, "Am I a Crusader? Does my life exemplify a 'Soldier of the Light'?" After all, that is what Crusaders were — soldiers of the light.

And today the battle continues. As never before "The dark one" presses his attack against us. His stinging arrows fly past us and often strike in unprotected areas of our souls. However, those of us who have joined the fight need not rely on our strength — our Father's will be more than sufficient.

For those of you who have not taken up the sword though, where does your strength lie? Where is your protection? A world around you is slowly dying and there is but one hope. When will you heed that call?

"I waited patiently for the Lord. He turned to me and heard my cry . . . He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and hear and put their trust in the Lord."

Psalm 40:1.3

The Inauguration Of Our Eighth President

Salutations to A. Gordon Wetmore, who on the eighth of March, 1984, in the Montgomery Field house was inaugurated as the eighth president of Northwest Nazarene College.

"On behalf of the citizens of Nampa, I extend to Dr. Wetmore our heartiest congratulations on this special occasion," said Winston Goering, the mayor of Nampa. "Northwest Nazarene College has a profound impact on the life of our community . . . I have great confidence in Dr. Wetmore's leadership. Jesus Christ is his model. With his sincere desire to serve, we shall be victorious."

For the Board of Regents, it was no easy task to choose NNC's college president. Determined to be sure that the college remain firm to the principles for which it was founded; the development of Christian character within the philosophy of a high standard of academic achievement, they feel confident Gordon Wetmore will fulfill the responsibilities of his position.

"We have confidence in you and deep respect in your commitment to the work of the Kingdom. We pledge to you our prayers and support in this new task." — Leon Doane, Chairman, Board of Regents.

"Profs Are People Too!"

Students have a hard time understanding that on occasion, in fact, most of the time, profs are people too. But if one should stop a moment and take a good look around campus, they may be surprised at just how many instructors can be seen doing perfectly normal extracurricular activities.

Taking photographs, mowing the lawn, flipping hamburgers just like everyone else, and most likely they do it all without the aid of an overhead projector.

Clockwise above: Jack Alban poses
Irving Laird "wants you" . . . Ralph Neil scopes the soccer game . . . Gay-mon Bennet "gets into" his teaching
George Turner cooks for Corlett
Myron Murray and Dave Redfield share a terrific day with their families.

In the end, it will not be the school itself which we remember the most, not the dining hall, the student center, or the College Church. Instead, it will be the people who filled those rooms. It will be faces, and moving pictures that parade past our mind's eye: smiles, tears, laughter and song; solemnity and pain that drew us together as friends, as family.

All these will weave together and form the memory that we entitle, "the NNC experience", and until the end of our days on this earth the mention of that name will evoke the emotion and faces tied to it, like pushing the "forward switch" of newsreel depicting the times we spent on this campus.

As another year comes to a close and we put the finishing touches on another chapter of our lives, I can't help but reflect back upon the memories which this year has provided.

As I write this, many of these memories come to my mind — sporting events, concerts, Homecoming, classes, social activities, and yes, even Saga! One memory, however, stands out — this being the senior investiture chapel when Todd Pittman sang a song written by Deborah and Michael Smith entitled "Friends!"

Packing up the dreams of God planted
In the fertile soil of you Can't believe the hopes He's granted means a chapter in your life is through

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
'cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong

And friends are friends forever
If the Lord's the Lord of them
And a friend will not say "never"
'cause the welcome will not end
Though it's hard to let you go
In the Father's hands we know
That a lifetime's not too long to live as friends

With the faith and love God's given
Springing from the hope we know
We will pray the joy you'll live in
Is the strength that now you show

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
'cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong

And friends are friends forever
If the Lord's the Lord of them
And a friend will not say "never"
'cause the welcome will not end
Though it's hard to let you go
In the Father's hands we know
That a lifetime's not too long to live as friends

Friends are what make our "NNC experience" memorable. While many of the events come and go, and some of the memories fade, our friends will last forever. NNC has taught me to value my friends — the ones I shared with, laughed with, and cried with.

In putting this book together, my staff and I have tried to capture a special side of the events, people, and things which have stood out to make this year unique. It is my hope that these experiences will not be forgotten — and as we look back over the year, we will remember the friends that made it especially memorable.

Striving to be a Soldier of the Light.

Duane Slemmer

Duane Slemmer

The moon peers
between tree branches,
A soft reminder
of the love, the light,
which endures
forever. And now,
My thoughts race back in time
to battles I never fought.
Memories of wounds,
which never pierced my skin,
but send shivers of pain
through my soul.
The battle rages still, and I wonder,
will my shield be strong enough,
my sword fit to wield,
will I even join the struggle?
Give me strength O' Lord.
I hear the call, the cry,
the broken words of servants
from long ago,
the call to be,
. . . Soldiers of the light.
